Water District Boosts Assets Quarter Million

Water is a profitable commodity, Niles Chamber of Commerce members learned Tuesday.

Matt Whitfield Jr., manager of the Alameda County Water District, reported the public utility:

1. Made $55,959 profit on its conservation activities last year.

2. Made $82,166 through distribution of water to customers, and

3. Increased the value of its assets by $257,275.

Whitfield and Chairman E. M. Grimmer spoke at the invitation of the Niles chamber, meeting in Nello's Cafe.

Whitfield said water sales and service fees totalled $206,452, while taxes — devoted to water conservation — amounted to $78,966.

However the district spent $118,490 for pipes, hydrants, meters, etc., and therefore had to apply the profit from selling water and part of the tax revenue to this outlay.

Subdividers installed 32,602 feet of mains and 40 hydrants, valued at $124,338. This was listed as district assets, as was the capital outlay by the district itself.

In addition, $10,000 in bonds were retired.

Whitfield said the district has 52 miles of pipe in operation, virtually all of it from 4 to 16 inches in diameter.

FALL FATAL TO NILES PAINTER

A 12-foot fall from a scaffold at Warm Springs proved fatal last Friday to Robert N. Shuart, 39, of 432 Fremont Ave., Niles.

Working as a painter at the Craig Rest Haven, Shuart was alone when he plunged to the ground, landing on his head.

Funeral services were held Tuesday from Chapel of the Palms, with interment in Golden Gate National Cemetery. Shuart was a Navy veteran of World War II.

He leaves his widow, Neva, and was the stepfather of William Hammond of Georgia; Robert Boldt of the United States Air Force; Mrs. Stephanie Smith of Washington; Sandra Boldt of Niles; son of Mrs. Naomi Shuart of Castro Valley; brother of John Shuart of San Francisco; Mrs. Grace Van Cott of Palo Alto; Joseph Shuart of Napa; Paul Shuart of Oakland, Mrs. Olive Chapman of Berkeley; Mrs. Sally Havens of Nevada; Eric Shuart of Campbell, Mrs. Gertrude Hahn of Castro Valley.

Strike Confab On

Another meeting between union and management of Pacific States Steel Corp., strike-bound since July 31, is scheduled today in Oakland. Results of another session Tuesday were not disclosed.

Little League Chief

Dean Davenport, deputy sheriff, was elected president of the new Township Little League organization Tuesday night.

WARM SPRINGS HAS NEW PRINCIPAL

The Township's newest school principal is a 29-year-old Navy veteran, Francis W. Prembay.

He succeeds George W. Clary, who is now superintendent of schools at Pollock Pines, in El Dorado County.

Prembay graduated from the University of New Hampshire, with subsequent degrees from Washington State and Stanford. He has been teaching in Idaho, Washington and most recently in Sunnyvale.

With his wife, Eugenia, Prembay lives in Santa Clara. His teachers are Mrs. Viola Appel, Mrs. Myrna Mays and Mrs. Edna Sullivan.

NEWARK SIDEWALK ISSUE REVIVED

Last night the Newark Chamber of Commerce was on the receiving end of several petitions signed by the residents of Newark urging that body to do something about the lack of sidewalks in town.

The petitions set forth that because of the lack of sidewalks, particularly along Thornton Avenue, Birch Road and Dairy Avenue, school children need protection walking to and from school, particularly along Thornton Avenue where, the petitioners claimed, the speed of traffic is excessive and dangerous to the children.

They asked the Chamber of Commerce to use its best efforts to obtain sidewalks in the community and to obtain adequate police supervision to slow traffic along Thornton Avenue.

Jack MacGregor, superintendent of the Newark school, made the announcement to parents earlier that all school children, including kindergarten youngsters, living within a radius of three-quarters of a mile from the school would have to walk. He cited lack of buses and increased enrollment as reasons for the change.

Last year the Post Office Department refused door-to-door mail delivery to Newark and lack of sidewalks was given as the reason. Announcement that even the tiny kindergarten youngsters must walk to school along Thornton Avenue, where heavy traffic places the lives of each youngster in jeopardy twice a day, was the spark that ignited the residents to petition the Chamber of Commerce.

1300 EXPECTED

WHUS Opens With 1110 Pupils

An all-time record 1110 pupils enrolled at Washington Union High School on opening day Tuesday.

Supt. J. V. Goold said he expects another 200 youngsters before fall is much older. Last year's opener saw 966 sign up.

Goold said he bases his prediction of more than 1300 in classes on the fact that late summer jobs and vacations invariably make about 15 percent of his students late in registering, and also on the fact that his office is holding 172 uncalled-for registrations belonging to students who signed up last spring.

The high school, designed for less than 700, is scrambling to stretch its present classrooms, cloakrooms, dining rooms and shops to accommodate the flood. It will be crammed until January, when its $1,000,000 annex will be completed.

The big enrollment broke down as follows: freshmen, 353; sophomores, 339; juniors, 245; seniors, 173.

Grammar schools had their problems too, as the 1954 fall term opened for most of them here.

In Newark, for instance, Supt. Jack MacGregor said he counted more than 850 heads, with the certainty of another 100 in a few days.

In Decoto, Supt. Harold Schoenfeld said opening day count was 1351, with another 90 "certain" to show up by next Monday. His breakdown:

Barnard (kindergarten through 8th grade) 373; Decoto (kindergarten through 5th) 506; Hillview Crest (kindergarten through 5th) 472.

Incidentally, Dr. Schoenfeld said present district plans call for enlarging the Hillview Crest School and building a school in Treeview tract to care for almost 2000 new homes planned north of Decoto, some half of which will be in the Decoto school district.

The Niles district opened with an enrollment of 703, according to Supt. E. Dixon Bristow.

Three districts, two of them plagued by delays to new buildings, postponed starting classes until next Monday. They are Centerville, Irvington and Mission San Jose.

CHAMBER MEETING

The Washington Township Chamber of Commerce will meet at 8 p.m. Monday in the County Building.

UNION, DECOTO SEWER DISTRICTS CONSOLIDATE

The Decoto Sanitary District was officially absorbed last Wednesday night by the Union Sanitary District.

Twin boards of directors met and voted for the consolidation. The Union Sanitary District previously served Niles, Newark, and Centerville, and recently doubled its size by annexing the 5000-acre Alviso District.

George Coit, chairman of the USD since it was formed in 1918, was retained in office. So was Secretary S. G. Scott of Newark.

Union and Decoto board members will remain in office until the next regular elections, when a five-man board will again be chosen.

Both Coit and George Smith, chairman of the Decoto District, hailed the merger as a step forward for Central Washington Township. Mains will be laid shortly connecting the two districts.

HOSPITAL CUTBACK TO 50 BEDS HINT TO FIGHT COSTS

Plans for the Washington Township Hospital were approved and forwarded to state officials last Wednesday night, with more than a hint from directors that the institution may be reduced to its original capacity of 50 beds to pare rising costs.

The hospital design had been expanded to 64 beds, but directors noted:

1. That recent architect estimates of the building's cost have been boosted some $118,000.

2. About $50,000 could be saved directly by eliminating the extra 14 beds.

3. The state will allow a $40,000 morgue to be cut from the design if the capacity is held to 50 beds.

Board Chairman L. S. Whitaker said the blueprints provide that the savings can be made when the contract is let, probably in November.

Centerville Electric & Pump Co. was awarded a $13,500 contract to install a 500-gallon-per-minute pump and 10,000-gallon pressure tank, adequate for the hospital's ultimate-designed size of 200 beds.

Two new candidates had filed for directorships and will be on the ballot at the November general election, it was announced. They are Manuel Hidalgo, Decoto merchant, and Raymond Marsh, Hillview Crest attorney.

Also running for the three jobs are three incumbents: Whitaker, a Niles druggist; S. G. Scott, Newark industrial executive, and Allan Walton, Centerville druggist.

'Parade of Homes' Near Irvington Opens Sunday With Dozen Models

The newest idea in home display and merchandising makes its Bay Area debut Sunday, September 12, with the opening of the Alameda County Parade of Homes.

Scene of the Parade is Irvingtown, a Stanley M. Davis development, just north of Irvington. It will be open to the public from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily, admission free, through Sunday, September 26.

Sponsor of the Parade is the Associated Home Builders of the Greater Eastbay. John I. Hennessy, executive vice president of the Association is chairman, assisted by Ronald L. Pardini, Association field representative.

Similar events in this part of the country have attracted more than 100,000 visitors.

The Irvingtown event offers a square block of homes with each residence built by a different construction firm. As described by Parade Chairman Hennessy:

"It is virtually a supermarket of new homes. For the first time, home buyers and potential home owners can see a wide variety of homes in just one stop. Until this time, interested families would have had to visit many scattered areas in the County to select the home of their choice.

Each of the homes is finished in every detail and ready for occupancy. All exteriors were expertly color planned by T. H. DeLap, Jr., of Oakland, to create an eye-pleasing neighborhood while still retaining distinct individuality of each home. This harmonious pattern is carried to completion through a landscaping design planned by Robert M. Babcock, C.A.L.A., Oakland Landscape architect.

Individuality of each residence is further enhanced by the wide variety of back yard planning. Rear yard treatments range from simple gardens to elaborate patios with swimming pools, raised flower beds and barbecue pits.

To Buy Site

Trustees of Washington Hi will meet Monday to sign papers purchasing 24 acres south of Irvington from Lloyd Bailey for a second high school.

This week the trustees accepted a $5000 bid from Colorado Steel & Iron to fence two sides and the rear of the present school site.

IRVINGTON JOINS 'CITY' STUDY

Irvington this week joined Centerville and Niles into a study of self-government, and there were hints that other towns may follow suit.

After a talk favoring cityhood by Wallace Pond, past president, the Irvington Chamber of Commerce voted to take part in the study, which will begin with a request for aid to the League of California Cities.

"The time to consider self-government has arrived," Pond declared. "To oppose it is bucking the tide. The people in the new subdivisions are from cities, and they will demand city services, with or without our help.

"(Cityhood) may not be as expensive as people think."

Chamber President A. E. Alameda named a committee to work with Niles and Centerville. Jack Prouty is chairman, assisted by Pond, Allan Hirsch, Bill Humpert and Walter Connolly.

President Howard Mitchell of the Niles chamber this week named his committee on the issue: Baine Leask, Frank Brown and Vernon Ellsworth. One from Centerville is scheduled to be appointed next week.

Bids Set For Street South of Hillview

Alameda County supervisors Tuesday set Dec. 18 as the deadline for completion of the Ithaca St. link between Hillview Crest and Decoto.

They will open bids for paving and grading the street on Oct. 5, with construction to start two weeks later and be finished 60 days after that.

Ithaca St. will run past Bernard School, enabling children to walk directly to their classes in wet weather instead of being transported the round - about route along the Hayward Highway.

By VIRGINIA CLARK

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McCracken and son, Dennis, of Richmond were recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Emery Peters.

Luanne Ebbage celebrated her tenth birthday August 30 with a party at her home on Glenmoor Drive. Luanne's guests were: Donna Ratto, Kathleen Hinz, Stephanie Finlay, Beverly Reichmuth, Patty Smith, Mary Alice Meyer, Doris Wootton and Carol Ann Jibson. The Fall motif was carried out in the room and table decorations with the use of brown and gold paper-streamers and placecards plus copper mugs of marigolds. The girls also sang "happy birthday" to Kathleen Hinz whose birthday was the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smith and sons, Gregory and Clinton, and Miss Betty Solley spent the weekend trout fishing on McCloud River in the Mt. Shasta National Forest.

Several couples from the Township Twirlers Square-Dance Club attended the potluck-picnic Slippers Square-Dance Club. The given August 28 by the Boots & picnic was held in Crow Canyon and there were also games and dancing. Glenmoor couples attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Meadows, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Weed, Mr. and Mrs. Don Barrett, and Mr. and Mrs. Emery Peters.

Edwin Goodwin of Ossining, New York, is expected to arrive today for a week's visit with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Goodwin.

Mrs. Phyllis LaFar, Mattos Drive, was hostess to the Glenmoor Bridge Club at her home on September 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Peters and Mr. and Mrs. Don Barrett dropped in on Mr. and Mrs. Lester Courson, Cabrillo Park, August 28 to help them celebrate their tenth wedding anniversary.

Off to school September 13 along with all the sprouts will be Mrs. Alice Smith, Mrs. Dorothy Griffith and Mrs. Vivian Mills of Glenmoor Gardens. Both Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Griffith will be teaching the third grade at Allen G. Norris School. Mrs. Mills will teach fourth grade at Centerville Elementary School. Opinion seems to be divided as to whether the week's delay in starting school should be considered as a reprieve or a letdown! Either way, however, there's little doubt that the extra time for preparation of school facilities will start the school year off more easily for all concerned.

Many happy returns of the day to Mrs. Wayne Fritch whose birthday was September 5.

This has been a busy summer for Mr. and Mrs. Jack Allen, what with so many friends and relatives coming to visit them at their new home in Glenmoor Court. Houseguests during recent weeks have included: Mr. and Mrs. Russell F. Varland of Dhahran (how's that again?), Saudi Arabia; Dr. and Mrs. Barry Jensen and children, Johnny and Karen, of Palo Alto; Mr. and Mrs. Kent Fisher of Provo, Utah; Mrs. Claire Nielsen and children, LaRae, Paulette and Michael, of Hollister, California; Miss Bernice Hanson of Provo, Utah; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Chapman and children, Beverly and Arthur, of Arroyo Grande, California.

August was a busy month too for Glenmoor Homes with homesales reaching the highest peak yet for any one month. The majority of new homes on Whitfield Avenue have been sold, including the model home. The next model home will be on Eggers Drive, where construction is already well under way. It will be the "811 Plan" and should be open within the next six weeks . . . Latest information on the U-Save Market is that the opening date has been set back to approximately October 1 . . . No report as of this writing on the application for utility-rate decreases. In view of the discomfiture evidenced by home-owners upon receipt of the latest staggering water bills, it would seem that action on this matter is long overdue.

A very proud cigar "hander-outter" these days is William Paulson whose wife presented him with a new baby boy on Tuesday, August 31. The newcomer has been named Randall Jonathan and was born at Alameda Hospital, weighing in at 7 lb., 11½ oz. Mr. Paulson brought his family home to Evans Street on Saturday and reports that both are doing fine. Best wishes!

Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Clark and children, Michael, Gael and Randy, and Mrs. Clark's mother, Mrs. Medina, spent a very happy four days last week at Rancho Las Uvas near Morgan Hill. Recreations included horseback riding, swimming, trout fishing, dove hunting, hiking and barbecues. Mrs. Clark reports they also managed to get in some rest and that all-in-all it was a very pleasant holiday.

COOKING SCHOOL STARS EXPERT

Mrs. Esther Drell Day, home economist of Pacific Gas and Electric Company who will appear on the free cooking school program at 7 p.m. Thursday, September 9, in the Newark Pavilion, has been active in her field for more than a decade.

A graduate in home economics of the Texas State College for Women, Mrs. Day took post graduate work at the University of California at Los Angeles, and for the last ten years has been in her present line of work.

During World War II she was chairman of the Red Cross nutrition and canteen program for the Southern Area, and she now is chairman of the San Francisco Group of Home Economics in Business.

Mrs. Day also is a member of the Oakland Soroptimist Club and has been active in the Alameda County Heart Association's committee on Rehabilitation of Cardiac Women at Home.

She has been active in many phases of cooking school work and has conducted them in various parts of California for newspapers, fairs, home shows, women's clubs, the Red Cross, public schools and theaters.

She maintains her home in Oakland. Her daughter attends the University of California.

Benefit Dinner

The ladies of Eagles Auxiliary of Alvarado will hold a benefit chicken dinner at the home of Mrs. Laura Gallo, 4016 Tennyson Rd., Hayward, Sunday, September 12. A charge of $1.00 for adults and fifty cents for children with the time 11:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Proceeds of this dinner will be used for the State President Official visit to be held jointly with Hayward, Livermore and Alvarado Auxiliaries.

Members, friends and others may attend this affair.

SUZY SEZ...

No need to ask if the fire truck went that-a-way, just follow the streets with all the people standing out in front peering in one direction.

I'd often heard the squeal of brakes, but no crash, on a nearby street. I found out why, myself when I almost hit a pet dog allowed to run free, a source of danger to passing drivers.

I spotted a Newark resident putting a mailbox up on his porch. I guess you can't blame him for wishing.

Speaking of mailboxes: You Niles residents take a tip from those in Centerville, and get a box that'll hold magazines, and then install it firmly, or it'll come clattering down with the first-of-the-month bills.

Tie two complementary colored scarfs together for a costume accent.

One mother tells me the last thing she wants is a TV set in which "the whole room plays." A room-full of Howdy Doody would drive her, and me, to the north pole.

Interested in a new home, or curious about the way modern houses look? See the many examples built north of Irvington on display starting Sunday.

The reason one Township family didn't rent the house they wanted, says a Centerville woman, is that they arrived to inspect it attired in dirty, greasy clothes, and in just a few minutes the children left fingermarks all over.

The sunflowers I've seen this year seem bigger and higher than last year. You agree?

My favorite eleven-year old likes summer, because he prefers all vegetables raw, including corn, peas, beans and potatoes.

Another accident on the curve north of Alvarado! I wonder what can be done to stop these repeat-accidents? I've given up on the new freeway.

How naive can you get? I thought that cocktail lounge being built north of Warm Springs was going to be a knitting shop!

I'm glad I talked the man of the family out of entering the cake — baking contest today. If he'd even received honorable mention I'd have never lived it down!

In spite of dozens of suggestions on how to make beds easily, my method is best, and involves no work. I just assign the job to the youngsters.

Before the Centerville area is zoned there may be a large upsurge in the number of ulcer cases, folks are so upset over the situation.

A Niles lady beat me to it. She's painted all the woodwork in the children's rooms a lovely finger-mark brown, and says they now concentrate on marking the walls.

Have you heard of the Centerville woman who went into a local store to make a twenty-cent purchase and wound up with a $200 appliance? Her husband was with her, so he can't blame anyone but himself.

I often wonder how they do it when I see those crop duster planes swoop low, just missing trees and wires. That's one job I don't want.

Cute remark of the week by a two-year-old after he took a tumble. "I dropped myself."

So long . . .

COUNTY SCHOOL COST 50 MILLION

The cost of educating Alameda County's public school children during the coming year will exceed 50 million dollars, according to figures released by the office of the County Superintendent of Schools.

A compilation of budgets for all 38 school districts in the county shows a total budget figure of $50,090,384 for the 1954-55 school year. This tops last year's budget by $2,511,132.

According to Dr. Vaughn D. Seidel, county school superintendent, the increase is due chiefly to the fact that at least 7000 more children will attend school this year than attended during 1953-54. An additional factor, he said, is that the cost of living has continued to rise.

Teachers' salaries, which last year amounted to $26,094,576, will claim $28,872,359 of this year's budget. Salaries for operation and maintenance of school buildings and grounds will account for another $4,185,804, and administrative salaries $1,443,016.

Approximately 35 per cent of the total budget, or $17,459,064, will be paid for out of taxes raised by the county during the coming year. The remaining general funds will come from state and Federal sources.

In addition to these, the county will receive $12,253,574 from the state, and $1,600,000 from the Federal government, to be used for classroom construction.

Of all school districts, Oakland Unified's budget of $21,019,160 is the county's largest. May Elementary District, at the other end of the scale, will operate this year on a budget of $8017.

Editor, Sir:

Your remarks about the establishment of door-to-door mail service breaking up the friendly camaraderie at the Post Office moves me to vigorously protest. I don't want it broken up!

There's no better way to start the day than to bat the breeze for a moment with one or more of the cheery, congenial, sparkling P.O. staff. If you've started the day glum, they dispel the gloom; if you've started the day happy, they enhance your cheerfulness; if you've started the day ignorant, they provide enlightenment.

With only a 3c purchase, you usually get a dollar's worth of friendly chit chat or morale pick-up. If the elimination of such a bright spot from my day is "progress" — I'm agin' it!

AROUND TOWN

It's impossible!!! — We are starting out on our third year with this column and it's hard to believe we are still fighting deadlines week after week — and liking it, even though there is plenty of griping, moaning and groaning mixed in for flavoring. We have found that the surest cure for the GM&G is the ringing of our telephone—so keep it buzzin, cuzzin.

During the past two years we have just about run the gamut of news writing and received comments as varied as the subjects we've written abot. The good ones we remember and the ones that come icy we throw in the sun to melt. When the material is controversial, the comments are likewise, but we try to mix a little of this and that with the so-called gossip (?) to make the whole thing more readable—sort of like putting chili with the beans.

The third annual Washington Township cooking school and appliance exhibit is at the Pavilion today from 1:30 to p.m. and features the cake bake contest. Great show, and it is sponsored by the S. P. R. S. I. and the Washington Township Appliance Dealers.

It's square dancing and folk dancing for adults at the Community Center, Sycamore and Dairy, every Thursday night starting at 8:30 p.m., and you'll see the Center jumping with adults having a good time. The Recreation District has the center reserved for adults on Tuesday and Thursday nights, so take advantage of it—ping pong, pool and dancing. The district has hired Mrs. Ruthe Foster to instruct the square and folk dancers every Thursday. Now is the time for beginners to start the new class—tonight. The intermediate Twirlabouts will dance the 1st and 3rd Thursdays at 8:30 and the 2nd and 4th Saturdays at 8.

Two more reminders — The Newark Sportsmen's dance at the Pavilion Saturday night for you lovers of modern dancing—and the Model Plane meet at the High School Sunday sponsored by the Newark Model Busters and the Knights of Pythias—a real good show and the kids wkill love it, so take the whole family.

Well our big stink has come back again to haunt us and ruin the paint on our homes. Last year the chemicals raised havoc with the paint, the people raised cain and the Alameda County Health Department investigated and issued a report — so we'll follow the same sequence again this year??

The big noise you heard on Tuesday wasn't an earthquake —It was the thundering herd heading back to school. Does anyone envy the teachers?

It is nice to see the Homen building — Sears & Houston, L & L Market and the Community Center—freshly painted. Too bad the view is marred by a gas station across the street. Newark was the first town in the township to get zoned and now it learns that zoning isn't all the battle—you have to keep an eagle eye on the building permits too.

J. W. and Earlie Mae Freiley enjoyed the company of Earlie Mae's mother, Mrs. Fannie Sloan and her brother, Oscar Sloan. The Sloans were here for a three-week visit from Wewoka, Oklahoma.

The Cub Scouts get back into the swing of things again this month and their leaders will be kept busy keeping their youngsters on projects. Den Mothers and committeemen will meet at 7:30 p.m., September 10, at the home of Clara Gibson, 2610 Noel St. Ruth Spence, Den Mother, chairman and Gary Armstrong, Cubmaster, hope to see a 100 per cent turnout.

There are 53 boys registered in Pack No. 1 and a new Pack is in prospect if more boys want to become Cubs. There is also a possibility that a Webelo group can be formed from the Cubs who have completed their Lion book.

Timothy McClelland made a wonderful discovery on Aug. 25th. He found lots of fun inside his seventh birthday package filled with games and refreshments. His guests were Tim and Mike O'Neil, Randy and Claudia Blazian, Terry Timmerman, Barbara and Ralph Cardan and Jackie Grimes.

Carol Veit will be teaching French at Notre Dame High in San Jose this term. She graduated from Notre Dame College in Belmont last June and this will be her first teaching assignment.

Dick and Fran Lynch enjoyed a whirl of activities during their vacation—a trip to Los Angeles to pick up Shannon and Dennis who had been summering with their grandparents—then off to Nevada where they stayed with friends near Fallon and made sidetrips to Virginia City, Walker Lake, Carson City and of course to Reno to see Dennis Day and Woody Herman, plus a lot of "one-armed bandits."

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pashote spent a week in Long Beach where the Chief attended a convention. To end their vacation with a light touch the Pashotes drove up to Reno for a couple of days.

Lester and Ruth Horn and their youngsters Jimmy and Sandra enjoyed a vacation trip to Oregon for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McNulty enjoyed a four day weekend in Chehalis, Washington, along with their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. McNulty, Mickey and Stephen. The younger McNultys stayed on to finish a two-week vacation.

Pete and Ruth Jensch enjoyed having Pete's sister and her femily. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ruddy and children Bobby, Barbara and Jim III from Lindwood as their guests for a few days last week.

Frank Veit is the man we are jealous of this week. Reason: He attended the American Legion Convention in Washington, D.C., and this is the umpteenth consecutive convention for Veit. Come to think about it, the Legion boys must be tough customers—they go to Washington and McCarthy heads for California and President Eisenhower vacations in Colorado.

Tony and Rose Martin have another prize trophy for their mantel. On Sunday, August 29th, they watched their young daughter, Judy, ride her pony, Honey, Johnny Pine ride Pedro, and LaVerne Soito ride Sirocco in the big parade at the Annual Red Men Pow-Wow in Concord. Soito and Sirocco won first prize as best individual horse and rider.

Rev. and Mrs. Martin Tonner have been wandering around the coast line this summer. Their vacation trips with quick stops at home in between, found them at spots all the way from San Diego on the south and Portland on the north. They are once again settled in the Presbyterian manse.

Delmer and Fran Jones and their little Joneses, Sherry, Ellen and Dennis had a grand two-week vacation trip. They drove to Grand Junction and Boulder, Colorado, where they enjoyed visiting Fran's parents and other relatives.

Louis and Ina Milani, Mervyn and Joan went to Coulterville for a few days relaxation last week.

Bob McNulty has had it tough the last couple of weeks —He slipped and fell at home and later went to Herrick Memorial Hospital as he hemorrhaged internally and had to stay in the hospital for over a week. He is home and recovering nicely now.

Life in the Sherman Schroeder home has been pepped up again since the arrival of Dorothy's niece, Betty Jean Raber, 18, last Sunday. This is the first visit to California for Betty Jean. She has found employment in San Jose and is 'fixing to stay awhile" with the Schroeders. She hails from Pontiac, Illinois.

Rickie and Margie Cardoza joined Manuel and Caroline Pavao for a weekend of seeing the sights at Tahoe, Reno and Virginia City.

Welcome —Baby Rosemary Yvonne Di Silvi, adoted baby of Jesse and Margaret Di Silvi, who came into their home at the age of one week. Mrs. Myrtle Grace, mother of Margaret, was hostess of a baby shower to welcome her granddaughter. Guests included: Pat Pierce, Ruth Brazil, Florrie Pierce, Mae Weatherford, Bobbie Green Christine Williams, Elthea Tutt, Mavis Treat, Hazel Jones, Elsie Jones, Emma Bradley Shirley Hamilton, Jean Carey, Sophie Barker, Nora Shipman, Ann Marshall, Charlene Moyer, Marjorie Dotson, Emma England Cathy Haines, Lois Cauthron, Bessie Dean, Eileen Dower, Fay Hickman, Veda Kimsey Cora Ross and Vera Wilson.

Viola Gorman was hostess for a shower in honor of the storkapating Evelyn Frias on Saturday, August 28. Lovely gifts in pink and blue filled the bassinette and we don't know who gave that lucky "seven", but we do know the guest list included: Mesdames Lillian Veiria, Belle Mattias, Gloria Enos, Mary Mattias, Pearl Frias, Mabel Breen, Hope Cardana, Ruth Horn, Mrs. Manuel Rego ad the prospective grandmother, Mrs. Mary Lawrence, of New Bedford, Massachusetts.

Our Carrollogram machine must be broken because there is practically nothing on the wire except a couple of happy birthdays — to Al Hartmann, better and more affectionately known to us as Poppa, who will be celebrating number 83 next Monday — to little Mark Timmerman who reached for his first big candle on August 21—to Jimmie Kay Barks as she celebrated with a real party with her gang on Tuesday, August 31.

Last Friday was party day for young Hank Adams as he celebrated his third birthday with games and refreshments and a gang of young friends including: Bruce and Linda Seymour, Sandy, Ronny and Susie Garcia, Donald Emmett, Sheila Freiley, Freddy and Susan Perl, Ray, Terry and Sandro Marshall, Renice Maughan, Roxanna Dias, Janice, Nawannah and Von Dee Sudbury and Ronnie Sudbury. Grownups sharing in Hank's fun were: Carol Emmett, Earlie May Freiley, Elizabeth Perl, Mary Marshall, Harriett Dias and Leva Sudbury.

DON'T FENCE ME IN

Most appealing item of the summer, to our way of thinking, concerns the Emeryville cop who got fired because he felt hemmed in. Emeryville's city limits are so narrow that he took to patrolling outside them for a change of scenery, and got caught at it.

Anyone who works a routine job, patrolling from desk to file cabinet to water cooler to desk can appreciate and sympathize with the officer's plight. It's the American dream to want to expand our horizons. We think the city fathers of Emeryville should give the man another chance, if that's what he wants, although maybe he really needs a broader horizon to work on.

IN UNION, THERE IS DECOTO

The harmony and cooperation surrounding last week's merger of the Decoto and Union Sanitary Districts should be a lesson to all of us. Directors of the two agencies decided they had too much to lose by staying apart, although Decoto had to sacrifice its identity and Union will probably have more expense than taxes from Decoto for awhile.

The point is, both boards took a broad view of the problem and tried to project that view into the future some distance. The area around Decoto will be developed soon, and the two districts realized that only by getting together could the vital sanitary service be provided on a scale big enough to cope with the development.

The same principle should be applied to the working of every public agency in this Township. Unfortunately in the past, officials of many of our two-score different districts have spent more time fighting to retain autonomy than in figuring out how to serve the public better and save taxes by cooperation and consolidation.

As we said last week, it's time every man and woman in the Township came wide awake and faced the problems that are upon us, self-rule being the main one at the moment. If men from Decoto and men from Centerville can sit down and discuss cooperation for the public good, then representatives of every town, every agency and every group should be able to do the same.

Did we hear someone say the Sanitary Boards did it because they had to? What do you think that is breathing down your neck right now — Santa Claus?
